February 2020

President's Column

Hello Newcomers!

Why does each new month surprise me? February already! I try to enjoy each month by doing fun things and meeting new people. If you need more fun in your life, get more involved with the Newcomers! Come to the General Meetings, go to Lunch Out, meet up for Coffee and Conversation. You're always welcome at the game's tables, book club, bowling, shooting and the special events. We all have different life experiences to share with our fellow Newcomers and the opportunity to build community. We are fortunate that new people continually join our club, so let's reach out and welcome those new people and get to know each other.

February is not only the month for the Super Bowl and Valentine's Day, but it is also the month that we welcome new leadership to the Newcomers. Thank you all for your support during my reign as the President. Kudos to Cathi Montgomery for accepting the President's position and leading us into 2020.

Special EVENTS and News from Special Events Committee

News from your Special Events Committee (SEC)

The SEC has so many ideas and plans in the works so keep your calendars out and your pencils ready! We are striving to reach as many people as we possibly can with our activities. Some activities will be free, some will require a small payment and some will be at a higher cost. There will be trips on a variety of week days – maybe even a weekend – so the same members aren't missing out due to other commitments. We are going to offer Quick Trips to local or area museums, sites, stores; Full-Day Trips to places of interest that are a bit further away and will require a longer drive and a longer visit, e.g. Renolda House, Asheville, fairs, home tours; and Socials that will celebrate the season, the holiday, or just for fun!

Our first Quick Trip is a ceramic class at Bisque n Beads in Hickory! Join us for a couple of hours on Monday, February 10th for arts, crafts and conversation. See the flier in this Newsletter.

We are working on dovetailing with the March speaker and arranging a tour of the Historical Society Museum in Newton. Stay tuned for details on that.

Also in the works is the Annual Picnic, a Food Tour in Asheville (see the note on that in this Newsletter), the Pontoon Party, a Halloween Bash and a Leaf Peeping Trolley Tour later this year, as well as Quick Trips to sites in the area. We will keep you all informed via the Newsletter, announcements at the meetings, and emails. Hope you will be joining us often! As always, feel free to make suggestions to any SEC member or join us at our meetings. The next SEC meeting is on Monday, March 9th at 1:00-3:00 at the Hickory Library.

Amy Chizen, SEC Chair

Feeling Artsy Craftsy?

Join us for a Ceramic Class at Bisque n Beads!

What is it? Bisque n Beads is a ceramic and bead shop in downtown Hickory. They allow groups to come in and each person chooses a piece of ceramics, paints it, they fire it, and you pick it up a week later. Simple!

When is it? Our group will have the studio to ourselves on Monday, February 10th from 1:00 PM. The class usually takes about 2 hours.

What will you paint? There are many pieces to choose from including mugs, plates of various sizes, vases, picture frames and bowls to name a few.

What will it cost? The cost includes the class, the item you paint, paints and brushes, and firing charges. Each piece is priced separately, but most of the items start around $15 and go up from there. The bigger the piece, the higher the price.

Please RSVP. Let me know if you are coming! We can have as many as 25 and I will need a count 3-4 days ahead. This is open to men as well as women. RSVP to Amy Chizen at chizenamy@gmail.com, or (860) 428-6786. If you are interested in, or need to carpool, please let me know that in your RSVP and we can put you in contact with possible rides.

Your Special Events Committee has a proposed outing for May 15th or 16th. It would be a Food Tour in downtown Asheville. Cost would likely be $65 per person and it would involve a two mile, three hour (facilitated) tour of food and drink at various restaurants.

We will work on a carpool if there is enough interest.

Here are a couple of links for you to review. If you are interested, which tour would you prefer? We will select the tour that generates the most interest. Please let us know by 3/5, since advance purchase will be critical. We will let you know which tour we select and which date we select. At that time, you will go on-line and make your payment. It is a rain or shine tour.

MONTHLY ACTIVITIES

BOOK CLUB

Book Club is currently reading Educated: A Memoir by Tara Westover. Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho, Tara was seventeen the first time she set foot in a classroom. Her family was so isolated from mainstream society that there was no one to ensure the children received an education, and no one to intervene when one of Tara's older brothers became violent. When another brother got himself into college, Tara decided to try a new kind of life. Her quest for knowledge transformed her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Harvard and to Cambridge University. Only then would she wonder if she'd traveled too far, if there was still a way home. Book Club meets every other month on the 4th Wednesday of the month, except for this November. Our next meeting is March 25, at Women's Resource Center at 1:30 p.m. Donna McDermott will facilitate our discussion. Several book club members plan to attend Lenoir Rhyne's Visiting Writers Series on March 5 when Min Jin Lee (the author of Pachinko) is scheduled to speak. The Coordinator is Mary Bucy at mebucy@hotmail.com

If you don't have bowling shoes, they can be rented for $1.50. Contact Vince LeGrand for more information at legravin@gmail.com

Do you like Strategic Challenging Board Games?

Do you like board games that are challenging, more strategic than random, more varying than repetitive? Do you find "Monopoly" boring or "Risk" too dependent on the roll of the dice, or "Sorry" is a good name for a sorry board game.

THE PANADEMIC GAME BOARD.

Then, consider learning to play some of the newest Challenging board games. Have you heard of PANADEMIC? A game where all the players collaborate attempting to save humanity from spreading contagious viruses. Either everyone wins the game or everyone loses. Or, SPLENDOR, where your strategy is constantly changing as the game conditions and opponents change on you. We are determining if there is any interest in having a Strategic Board Game night? If interested, email Rob Herman at Rob6Herman@gmail.com and indicate your interest and what strategic games are your favorites.

SCRABBLE anyone?????

Some REQUESTS for playing Scrabble on GAME NIGHTS/GAME DAYS has come up, and if there are others interested, we need to be asking the Game Coordinators to add it to those game dates. We always have stated, "Please bring any other game you want to play"!! The people who are interested, may have to bring their own SCRABBLE Games the first few sessions, and if we get a good turnout, the club can buy a game or two to keep at the Airport.

Sponsor Spotlight      HICKORY COMMUNITY THEATRE

Hickory Community Theatre (HCT) was first visualized in 1947 by a college student and a traveling actor. Their first performance was on May 24th, 1949 and was composed of 3, One Act Plays, The Enchanted Night, The Valiant, and Curse You, Jack Dalton. The Theatre has always been located in the old City Hall, where Staff and Volunteers reverently refer to it as the "Jail", (now the scenic shop), and the "Fireman's Kitchen", both of which are nicknamed after their original functions. HCT is run by a dedicated Staff and hundreds of Volunteers, including the Managing Artistic Director, Pamela Livingston, and Managing Director, John Rambo. These two head the job of fulfilling the "Vision": "We intend to create an artistically adventurous environment that attracts and excites diverse members in the community by providing an expanded understanding of life through the art of quality theatre."

HCT is located @ 30 Third Street NW, Hickory, NC 28601, website, Boxoffice@hickorytheatre.org Phone:828-328-2283.
